leave for Seattle, Wash., for an extended visit with her uncle, James A. and Mrs. Sumner K. Prescott.

Miss Lowell was a popular member of this year's graduating class of St. Ann's High School, and was also in all the clubs.

The home of Mrs. Price Colby Claffin, 1327 Longfellow street, was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening at 8 o'clock, when her daughter, Marguerite Esther, was married to Mr. Harold Ellsworth Warner of this city in a private and intimate ceremony. The young couple stood before a white satin prie-dieu, which was placed in a bower of palms and ferns in front of the large window in the reception room. The room was decorated with a profusion of pink roses, ferns and oak foliage.

The Rev. Robert W. Coe, assistant pastor of the First Congregational Church, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Harry Edwards Claffin, wore a gown of ivory satin, with an overdress of net. Her court train of satin was caught at the shoulders with a tulle veil held with a bandeau studded with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a pearl and gold lavalliere, the gift of the bridegroom.

The bride was attended by her nieces, Miss Dorothy Claffin, as maid of honor, and Eleanor Payne, as flower girl. The maid of honor carried a bouquet of white roses and carried a basket of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Bolitha J. Laws of this city acted as best man. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Julius A. Payne of Philadelphia, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, with their daughter, Eleanor; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole and Miss Helen Cole of Baltimore and Mr. George W. Naylor of Bristol, N. Y.

The bride's going-away gown was of dark blue tulle and serge, with a hat of ashen of roses, with pink green foliage. After a northern trip of several weeks Mr. and Mrs. Warner will be at home at 1327 Longfellow street.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Eustis have closed their house, 1717 I street and have gone to Newport for the season.

Mrs. Leigh Palmer left yesterday for a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Macgregor at their country place near Frederick, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Garnett of Newport, R. I., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Caroline R., to Lieut. Thomas C. Humphreys, U. S. A., now stationed at Fort Adams.

Mrs. Delos Blodgett has closed her residence on 16th street for the season and has gone to her summer home at Cape Anne, Mackinac Island, Mich., where she will join her sister, Mrs. Charles G. Matthews, and her daughter, Miss Blodgett, who preceded her some days ago.

The Swiss minister and Mme. Ritter will leave Washington Saturday for Lake Island, where they will make a short visit. From there, Mme. Ritter, accompanied by their children, will go to Lake Placid, N. Y., where they will pass the summer at the White Face Inn.

The military attaché of the British embassy and Mrs. Brien have reached Newport, where they will spend the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Reginald Walker will entertain at dinner tonight in honor of Mrs. William J. Todd of Mount Washington, Md. Dr. Walker's sister, who is their guest at Florence Court. Mrs. Walker will entertain a luncheon and theater party for Mrs. Todd Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gebhart will be "at home" this evening at their home in Baltimore in honor of the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. Ralph Goldsmith of Washington.

The Rev. Dr. Roland Cotton Smith has gone to Beverly, Mass., where yesterday he officiated at the marriage ceremony of his niece, Miss Phyllis Sears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mason Sears of Prides Crossing, and Mr. Bayard Tuckerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Tuckerman, at St. John's Church.

The wedding of Miss Ferebe G. Westcott, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tilden Westcott of Baltimore, and Dr. David Corbin Streett, son of the late Dr. David Streett and Mrs. Streett of 712 Park avenue, Baltimore, will take place the middle of July, instead of June, as originally planned, owing to illness in the family.

The wedding will take place at the home of Miss Westcott's sister, Mrs. Raymond S. Williams, at Guilford, a suburb of Baltimore.

No invitations will be issued and only a small family party will witness the ceremony.

Mrs. Russell Wilson, wife of Lieut. Wilson, U. S. N., is closing her apartment at the Cordova for the season and will leave Washington in the morning for Jamestown, R. I.

Mrs. K. B. Fullerton of Kansas City, who arrived yesterday for the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Representative and Mrs. William P. Borland, was the honor guest at a theater party given by Representative and Mrs. James T. Lloyd.

Miss Ida Thompson Serven was married at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Serven, 3131 16th street northwest, to Mr. Burt Edith Barlow of Coldwater, Mich.

Dr. Henry C. Brundage of the Eckington Presbyterian Church officiated. The bride wore a gown of white silk under a lace robe, which was worn by her mother and grandmother at their wedding. The skirt was full and round length, and she wore no veil. Her bouquet was of white roses.

One corner of the drawing room was filled with palms reaching to the ceiling, and the bride and groom showed through the foliage, while white gladioli blossoms filled the tall vases.

Mr. and Mrs. Barlow left Washington last evening to motor to Buffalo, and from there will take the lake trip to Detroit, where they will be at home after July 15.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Bauer announce the marriage today, June 21, of their daughter, Dorothea Louise, and Mr. Robert Walcott, of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Weeks of this city.

It had been planned to have the wedding take place October 3, but owing to the fact that the bridegroom is a member of the 7th Regiment of the National Guard of New York, which has been ordered out, an earlier date was fixed upon.

The ceremony took place at 11 a.m. at the home of the bride's parents, in the Ontario, in the presence of both families and a few close friends.

The Rev. Dr. U. G. B. Pierce officiated. Mr. John Remy acted as best man and Miss Helen Dodge as maid of honor. Miss Frances Dawson, a little cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Miss Mary Pugh furnished the wedding music. The room was decorated with roses and other flowers and a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Weeks left a little later for New York.
